

United Way of Southeastern Pennsylvania Philadelphia, PA

Project Title	Home Savings Plus
Contact Information	Mary Strasser or Hydie Miller Seven Benjamin Franklin Parkway Philadelphia, PA 19103 (215) 665-2476
AFI Grant Amount	$500,000
Nonfederal Support	$500,000
Project Period	September 2002 – September 2007
Highlights	United Way of Southeastern Pennsylvania is offering 150 new IDAs for homeownership. The match rate is $2 to $1 in participant savings. Home ownership, credit repair, post-purchase counseling and financial literacy training are provided.
Target Population	Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania.
Grantee/Collaborative Description	United Way of Southeastern Pennsylvania is a human services agency founded in 1921. Partner institutions include AchieveAbility, Hispanic Association of Contractors and Enterprises (HACE), CEIBA and Diversified Community Services. A twelve-person community board is providing advice to the project. Local funding for the project comes from United Way of Southeastern Pennsylvania, Citizens Bank and a few other sources.